1 Preamble

1.1 Objects for which SCONUL is established are those contained in Paragraph 3 of its Memorandum of Association.

1.2 SCONUL is a cooperative and participative body and these Rules, which must be read in conjunction with the SCONUL's Memorandum and Articles of Association, have been framed to reflect this. In particular the Executive Board, the Advisory Groups and the Secretariat all have discrete executive powers as laid out here and as time to time endorsed by the membership in General Meetings but are ultimately the servants of the membership.

1.2.1 These rules and procedures may be amended by the General Meeting in accordance with the Memorandum and Articles. Notice of any change must normally be given at a previous General meeting. Any change must receive the support of at least two-thirds of the members present.

Note: In these rules words importing individuals include bodies corporate; the masculine gender shall include the feminine, and the singular shall include the plural and vice versa.

2 Memberships

2.1 Eligibility for membership is laid out in the Articles of Association.

Universities - Paragraphs 5, 6.1, 6.2 and 6.3.

4 General and Business Meetings

4.1 Background and purpose: The organisation must act in response to the wishes of its members and within its Memorandum and Articles of Association. The General and Business Meetings at which all Representatives wishing to be present are in attendance are the principal formal means by which this is done. A General Meeting is one held for the conduct of company business which is required by company law or by the Articles of Association to be dealt with in general meeting; a Business Meeting is one at which the organisation pursues its general objectives.

4.2 The powers of the Meetings are
(A) to set policy and strategy and approve budgets within the framework of its Memorandum and articles of Association;

(B) to oversee and approve the carrying out of such agreed duties;

(C) to elect members of the Executive Board and of other such advisory committees and panels as are set up by the organisation;

(D) to remove officers or members of the Executive Board and advisory committees and panels.

4.3 The outcome of the meetings shall be

(A) Referral to the Executive Board for discussion or action

(B) Referral to advisory committees and panels, working parties, the secretariat or individuals for further investigation, report or action channelled through the Executive Board

(C) Require direct report back to the Meeting

(D) Other appropriate action as determined by a quorate Meeting.

4.4 General Meetings shall normally be held twice a year, one of which shall be an Annual General Meeting. On each occasion a Business Meeting will normally follow.

4.5 Representatives may, at the discretion of the Executive Board, be accompanied at Meetings by their senior members of staff of their successors attending as observers. The Executive Board shall have discretion in this respect concerning matters of logistics in respect of venues and attendance figures as well as the political sensitivity of matters under discussion.

5 Proceedings at General and Business Meetings

5.1 All meetings shall be conducted to a formal agenda issued in advance, and minuted by the Secretary. Debate shall be targeted on high priority items by shaping of the agenda and starring items for discussion. Items shall be starred for discussion either by the officers or by any member who notifies in advance of the meeting his wish for discussion. Unstarred items shall be for information only.

5.1.1 Any member may present items for inclusion on the agenda of General/Executive Board meetings but must inform the Secretary in writing at least fifteen working days before the agenda papers are issued.

5.2 Except in an emergency at least 21 days’ notice of any meeting shall be given to members.

5.3 No business shall be transacted at any Meeting unless a quorum is present when the meeting proceeds to business. One-third (or the number nearest to but not less than one-third) of the aggregate number of all Representatives whom the Members for the time being are entitled to appoint shall be a quorum for all purposes.

5.4 If within thirty minutes from the time appointed for the meeting a quorum is not present the meeting shall stand adjourned to such other day and at such other time and place as the Chairman shall appoint, and if at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within thirty minutes from the time appointed for the meeting the Representatives present shall be a quorum.

5.5 The Chairman of SCONUL, failing whom its Vice-Chairman, shall preside as Chairman at every Meeting but if there be no such Chairman or Vice-Chairman or if at any meeting neither of them shall be present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting and willing to preside, the Representatives present in person or by proxy shall choose one of their number to preside.

5.6 The Chairman may with the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by such meeting) adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. It shall not be necessary to give any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting (except where the meeting has been adjourned for thirty days or more, when notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of an original meeting).

5.7 The Chairman may with the consent of any quorate meeting may exclude at any time any observers present.

5.8 At any Meeting a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is (before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands) demanded by

5.8.1 the Chairman; or

5.8.2 no fewer than three Representatives; or

5.8.3 Representatives being in number not less than one tenth of the aggregate number of all Representatives whom the members for the time being are entitled to appoint.

A demand for a poll may be withdrawn. Unless a poll be so demanded (and the demand be not withdrawn) a declaration by the Chairman that a resolution has been carried, or carried unanimously or by a particular majority, or lost, or not carried by a particular majority, and an entry to that effect in the minutes shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded for or against such resolution.

5.9 If any votes shall be counted which ought not to have been counted, or might have been rejected, the error shall not vitiate the resolution unless it be pointed out at the same meeting, or at an adjournment thereof, and not in that case unless it shall be in the opinion of the Chairman of sufficient magnitude to vitiate the resolution.

5.10 If a poll is duly demanded (and the demand is not withdrawn) it shall be taken in such a manner as the Chairman may direct and the result of a poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded. The Chairman may appoint scrutineers and may adjourn the meeting to some place and time fixed by him for the purpose of declaring the result of the poll.

5.11 A poll demanded on the election of a Chairman or on a question of adjournment shall be taken forthwith. A poll demanded on any other question shall be taken either immediately or at such time and place (including by post) as the Chairman of the meeting shall direct, and any business other than that upon which the poll has been demanded may be preceded with pending the taking of the poll. No notice need be given of a poll not taken immediately.

5.12 On a poll votes may be given either by a Representative or by his proxy.

5.13 Every Representative shall have one vote.

5.14 In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the Chairman of the meeting at which the poll is demanded shall be entitled to a second or casting vote.

5.15 Proxies - rules governing the use of proxies are laid out under Paragraphs 35 to 39 of the Articles of Association.
